IMPORTANT HEALTH NOTICE: Our Diocese has directed parishes to refrain from the practice of intinction (dipping the wafer into the wine). For health reasons please co-operate with this requirement. Receiving the bread only is still regarded as a full expression of the sacrament, or you can simply hold or receive the chalice and then pass it back to the person serving. Intinction is less hygienic than the common cup.

Processional Hymn:

1: Praise the One who breaks the darkness
with a liberating light.

Praise the One who frees the prisoners, turning blindness into sight.

Praise the One who preached the Gospel, healing every dread disease, calming storms and feeding thousands with the very bread of peace.

2: Praise the One who blessed the children with a strong yet gentle word.

Praise the One who drove out demons with a piercing two-edged sword.

Praise the One who brings cool water to the desert's burning sand.

From this well comes living water, quenching thirst in every land.

3: Praise the One true love incarnate:
Christ who suffered in our place.

Jesus died and rose for many that we may know God by grace.

Let us sing for joy and gladness,
seeing what our God has done.

Praise the one redeeming glory,
praise the One who makes us one.

Rusty Edwards, tune: NETTLETON

Sentence:

Of Jesus many said, 'What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands!'

Mark 6.2

Collect: Let us pray

Caring God,
you equip us with all we truly need in the business of our daily lives.
Turn us to you in prayer that we might trust in your provision,
and hold only to those things that give us life.
Through Jesus Christ our Liberator, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reading: Ezekiel 2: 1-5 A Thomson

Psalm: 48

Epistle Reading: 2 Corinthians 12: 2-10 A Thomson

Gospel hymn:

1: I have called you by your name, you
are mine;
I have gifted you and ask you now to shine.

I will not abandon you;
all my promises are true.
You are gifted, called, and chosen;
you are mine.

2: I will help you learn my name as you go;
read it written in my people, help them grow.

Pour the water in my name,
speak the word your soul can claim,
share in Jesus' body, given long ago.

3: I know you will need my touch as you go;
feel it pulsing in creation's ebb and flow.

Like the woman reaching out,
choosing faith in spite of doubt, hold the hem of Jesus' robe, then let it go.

4: I have given you a name, it is mine;
I have given you my Spirit as a sign.
With my wonder in your soul,
make my wounded children whole;
go and tell my precious people they are mine.

Daniel Charles Damon (music and text)

Gospel Reading: Mark 6: 1-13 Jennifer Harris

Sermon: Bishop Andrew Hedge

The Prayers of the People Keith James

THE MINISTRY OF THE SACRAMENT

NZPB page: 419 The Peace

*We greet the people near us, saying 'Peace be with you' or 'Kia tau te rangimarie'.
At this time of Covid uncertainty you may prefer to refrain from physical contact.
Hand sanitiser is available if you wish to use it.*

*During the next hymn the bread and wine, symbols of Christ's life, are brought to the altar;
donations to the Food Bank are presented, and our offerings of money to support the mission and ministry of the Cathedral are collected, along with pledges made via electronic banking.*

Offertory Hymn:

1: Eternal Ruler of the ceaseless round
Of circling planets singing on their way,
Guiding the nations from the night profound
Into the glory of the perfect day:
Rule in our hearts, that we may live anew,
Guided and strengthened and upheld by you.

2: We are your own, the children of your love,
As dearly loved as your beloved Son;
Descend, O Holy Spirit, like a dove
And rule our hearts, that we may be as one -
As one with you, to whom we ever tend;
As one with him, our brother and our friend.

3: We would be one in hatred of all wrong,
One in our love of all things true and fair,
One with the joy that finds a voice in song,
One with the grief that trembles into prayer,
One in the strength that makes your children free
To follow truth, and thus in you to be.

John W. Chadwick, Tune: UNDE ET MEMORES

NZPB page: 419-427 THE GREAT THANKSGIVING & THE INVITATION

*Christians of any tradition and all seeking God are welcome at our Lord's table.
Please advise an usher if you need to have communion served in your seat.
You are welcome to request a blessing if you prefer not to receive the Sacrament.
During Communion the Choir will sing the Sanctus, Agnus Dei .*

Prayer after Communion:

We share notices and news

Recessional hymn:

- 1: Now thank we all our God
with heart and hands and voices, who wondrous things hath done,
in whom this world rejoices;
    who from our mother's arms
    has blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.
- 2: O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts
and blessed peace to cheer us;
    and keep us all in grace,
    and guide us when perplexed,
    and free us from all ills
    in this world and the next.
- 3: All praise and thanks to God,
our Maker now be given,
the Spirit and the Son:
the Trinity of heaven.
    The one eternal God,
    whom earth and heaven adore;
    for thus it was, is now,
    and shall be evermore.

Martin Rinkhart (adapted), Tune: NUN DANKET

Appointment of a Dean

Last week when Vestry met we were joined by Diocesan Registrar, Colleen Kaye, to lead a discussion about whether we can meet the terms of Evidence of Means, which is a key part of the process of making an appointment for the next Dean. This work showed us that the parish is in a position to fund that role with the ongoing support of the Diocese in recognition of the Dean's role in the wider church. We will still need to be focused on the stewardship planning for the parish but we have a good place to start from to make the next appointment.

On Sunday 18 July we will hold a consultation with the Cathedral Parish to help prepare for the appointment process. Please mark this date in your diary and come to the 10am service prepared to join the consultation meeting following morning tea at 11:15am and conclude by 1:00pm.

The Parish Consultation will ask 5 questions:

1. What are the present mission and ministry goals of the parish – both stated and un-stated? In other words, what is the parish “really about” at the moment?
2. What are the things you most value about your parish: the strengths of the parish?
3. What aspects of ministry in the parish need developing or strengthening further?
4. What dreams do you have for the future?
What are the key attributes / qualities that you seek in a new Dean?

The consultation meeting will also elect three members of the parish who are present at the meeting to join Alison as People's Warden on the Board of Nominations. There will be an opportunity to nominate people for election to those roles on the day of the meeting. Candidates must be present at the meeting to be eligible for election.
