Processional: All people that on earth do dwell...

1. All people that on earth do dwell, Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; Serve him with fear, his praise forth tell, Come ye before him and rejoice.	2. The Lord ye know is God indeed, Without our aid he did us make; We are his flock, he doth us feed, And for his sheep he doth us take.
---	--

3. O enter then his gates with praise, Approach with joy his courts unto; Praise laud and bless his name always. For it is seemly so to do.	4. For why the Lord our God is good: His mercy is forever sure; His truth at all times firmly stood, And shall from age to age endure.
---	--

5. To Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
The God whom heaven and earth adore,
From men and from the angel host
Be praise and glory ever more.

Welcome: Bishop Andrew Hedge

E te whānau a te Karaiti, we have gathered here this evening to celebrate the life and ministry of the Waiapu Cathedral of St John the Evangelist. We welcome amongst us family and friends of the Reverend Di Woods. We also welcome representatives of the Airforce and its chaplaincy, and representatives from Wellington Cathedral of St Paul and the Diocese from which she has come.

We thank you for the support you have offered Di in her recent ministry, and for your presence here tonight. We welcome also representatives of the other churches of Napier, the people of the Parish, clergy from this Diocese, and visiting clergy, and representatives of the Hawkes Bay community, as we license and install Di as Dean of this Cathedral.

The Nominators present the Dean elect to the Bishops:

Bishop Andrew and Pīhopa Ngarahu, we present to you Di Woods, who has been called to serve as Dean of the Waiapu Cathedral and as Vicar of the Parish of St John the Evangelist. We ask that she be commissioned to this ministry.

Di's supporters say:

Bishops, Clergy and People of the Waiapu Cathedral community, we bring to you Di Woods who has been called to offer her ministry as Dean of this Cathedral.

We thank God for Di's ministry as a Senior Air Force chaplain. May you, the people of God in this place, be blessed by her ministry as we have been. We pray for fruitful ministry for Di, with you in this new responsibility.

Bishop Andrew:

Thank you for bringing Di back to this Diocese. We thank God for the skills she brings with her. We pray for you, that God will continue to strengthen the life of your chaplaincy and Diocese. We pray God's blessing and thank you for this gift of Di.

The Dean elect and her supporters are seated.

Bishop:

Grace to you and peace from God our Creator,
the love at our beginning and without end,
in our midst and with us.

God is with us, here we find new life.

Let us give thanks for the coming of God's reign of justice and love.

Jesus Christ is good news for the poor, release for the captives, recovery of sight for the blind and liberty for those who are oppressed

Forgiveness

My brothers and sisters, we come seeking forgiveness for all we have failed to be and do as members of Christ's body.

Please sit.

God has promised forgiveness to all who turn to Christ in faith.

E te Ariki, kia aroha mai

E te Karaiti, kia aroha mai

E te Ariki, kia aroha mai

Words: Ian Render
Tune: NEWLANDS ROAD

Silence

Loving and all-seeing God, forgive us where we have failed to support one another and to be what we claim to be.

Forgive us where we have failed to serve you; and where our thoughts and actions have been contrary to yours we ask your pardon.

Through the cross of Christ, God have mercy on you, pardon you and set you free. Know that you are forgiven and be at peace. God strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in life eternal. Amen.

Kia mau te rongō o te Karaiti ki ō tātou ngākau.

Kia hira ake te noho o tāna kupu ki a tātou.

Psalm 15

Choir: The just will live in the presence of the Lord.

Response: The just will live in the presence of the Lord.

1. Lord, who shall dwell on your holy mountain?

Those who walk without fault,
those who act with justice
and speak the truth from their heart,
The just will live...

2. Those who do no wrong to their kindred, who cast no slur on their neighbours,

who hold the godless in disdain,
But honour those who fear the Lord;
The just will live...

3. Those who keep their words, come what may,
who take no interest on a loan and accept no bribes against the innocent.
Such people will stand firm for ever.
The just will live...

The Ministry of the Word

The First Testament Reading: Numbers 11:16,17, 24-29

The Seventy Elders

So the Lord said to Moses, 'Gather for me seventy of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; bring them to the tent of meeting, and have them take their place there with you. I will come down and talk with you there; and I will take some of the spirit that is on you and put it on them; and they shall bear the burden of the people along with you so that you will not bear it all by yourself.

So Moses went out and told the people the words of the Lord; and he gathered seventy elders of the people, and placed them all around the tent. Then the Lord came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do so again.

Two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested on them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. And a young man ran and told Moses, 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.'

And Joshua son of Nun, the assistant of Moses, one of his chosen men, said, 'My lord Moses, stop them!' But Moses said to him, 'Are you jealous for my sake?

Would that all the Lord's people were prophets, and that the Lord would put his spirit on them!

Magnificat

My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden. For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For he that is mighty hath magnified me; and holy is his Name. And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations.

He hath showed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel; as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed, for ever.

Glory to the Father and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen

Hymn: Ye watchers and ye holy ones...

1. Ye watchers and ye holy ones, bright seraphs, cherubim, and thrones,
raise the glad strain, Alleluia!
Cry out, dominions, pryncedoms, powers,
virtues, archangels, angels' choirs:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
*Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

2. O higher than the cherubim, more glorious than the seraphim,
lead their praises, Alleluia!
Thou bearer of th' eternal Word,
most gracious, magnify the Lord:
*Alleluia! Alleluia!

3. Respond, ye souls in endless rest, ye patriarchs and prophets blest,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Ye holy twelve, ye martyrs strong,
all saints triumphant, raise the song:
*Alleluia! Alleluia!

4 O friends, in gladness let us sing,
supernal anthems echoing,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
To God the Father, God the Son,
and God the Spirit, Three in One:
*Alleluia! Alleluia!

Tune: LASST UNS ERFREUEN

The New Testament reading: Luke 12:35-44

Watchful Slaves

‘Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

‘But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.’

The Faithful or the Unfaithful Slave

Peter said, ‘Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for everyone?’ And the Lord said, ‘Who then is the faithful and prudent manager whom his master will put in charge of his slaves, to give them their allowance of food at the proper time? Blessed is that slave whom his master will find at work when he arrives. Truly I tell you, he will put that one in charge of all his possessions.

Nunc Dimittis

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word.

For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,

Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory to the Father and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning is now, and shall be: World without end. Amen

The Commissioning in Ministry

The Bishop says:

Di, are you willing to serve in this new calling as Dean to this Cathedral? Will you ensure this Cathedral continues to be a church of welcome and hospitality especially for those who do not yet know Jesus across this city and diocese?

The Dean elect replies:

I am so willing, with the help of God.

The Bishop says:

Will you be faithful in carrying out the duties in the ministry God has called you to in this Cathedral Parish and this city? Will you seek to nourish the life of this Church as a house of prayer? Will you work with care and imagination with the vestry, and with all who serve God in this community? Will you take the Good News of Jesus Christ with you as you travel throughout this Diocese?

The Dean elect:

I will. God give me courage and humility.

The Bishop says:

We are all called as people of God within the Anglican Church of Aotearoa and Polynesia to work together as Tikanga partners, to grow the Kingdom of God, to share our resources and skills in our passion for the Gospel. Di, will you do all within your power to serve our Three Tikanga Church within this diocese and shared hui amorangi?

The Dean elect:

I will. God give me the strength to take this kaupapa to the church, here, across our province and across our world.

The Dean elect kneels before the Bishops. The congregation prays in silence.

The Bishops pray:

Empowering Spirit, grant to your servant Di, called to the office of Dean here, the gifts of grace which she needs to fulfil this ministry. Guide, uphold, inspire her by your Holy Spirit to serve you faithfully as a leader in this church. In all that she does and says, may your glory be seen and your holy name be made known. Amen.

Bishop Andrew:

Di, I admit you to the office of Dean of the Waiapu Cathedral Church of St John the Evangelist. Accept this charge which is both yours and mine, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and Holy Spirit.

The Diocesan Registrar, Colleen Kaye, reads the Dean's licence and then gives it to her.

The Bishop accompanies the Dean to her stall, presents her with the Cathedral tippet and she is robed in the Dean's cope.

The Dean, accompanied by the wardens and Lt Commander Paul Eady, Royal New Zealand Navy, rings the Veronica bell to indicate the beginning of this new season in the life of this Cathedral.

The Bishop continues

Together as God's faithful people we celebrate the ministry of this Cathedral Church. Let us pray that God will strengthen our love for one another, and that we may be heralds of the Kingdom of God.

The Prayers The new Dean prays for the church and the world, concluding with:

God of all ages,
you call us to be your people;
we give thanks for all who have served you in this place,
and we seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit
as we discover your vision for the present and the future, in this community and beyond;
through Jesus Christ our redeemer. Amen.

Presentation of symbols to the new Dean

Representatives of the Cathedral present symbols to the Dean which relate to areas of ministry.

At the Font:

Cathedral Representatives: (Janine Melville and Pip Brooker)

Dean Di, receive this water. Be among us to baptise as Christ commanded.

People: Amen

Bishop Andrew: Jesus said: Go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Will you faithfully administer the sacrament of baptism here?

Dean Di: Yes I will. I shall baptise those who come to be made members of Christ's Church.

The water is poured into the font

Dean Di: I ask you, my sisters and brothers in Christ, will you share with those who are baptised what we ourselves have received?

People: We will share our delight in prayer, our love for the word of God, the desire to follow the way of Christ, and food for the journey.

At the Eagle Lectern:

Cathedral Representatives: (Susan Wylie and Rae Towers) Dean Di, receive this Holy Bible. Be among us to proclaim God's word to God's people.

The Bible is placed open on the Eagle lectern.

People: Amen.

Bishop Andrew: Jesus said: Go into the world and preach the good news to the whole creation.

Will you study and proclaim these scriptures, be a faithful teacher in this cathedral, and make known God's love for all?

Dean Di: Yes, I will. The scriptures will be the foundation of my teaching and preaching. May all that we speak and do be in accordance with them.

I ask you, my fellow pilgrims, will you seek renewal, will you share this new life, and reveal the way of Jesus to all people?

People: By God's grace and with your help, we will follow Christ.

At the Altar:

Cathedral Representatives: (Lesley Carthew and Christine Kerr)

Dean Di receive this Prayer Book. Be among us as a person of prayer. The prayer book is placed on the altar.

People: Amen.

Cathedral Representatives: (Sue John and Jenny Baker)

Dean Di receive this holy oil. Be among us as a healer and reconciler.

The oil is placed on the altar.

People: Amen.

Bishop Andrew: Jesus said: love one another as I have loved you.

Will you be a channel of God's love to others?

Dean Di: Yes, I will. I ask you, as fellow servants of Christ, will you join me in caring for our neighbours and our community so that through our love new life may come to others?

People: By God's grace we will share Christ's love with others.

Cathedral Representatives: (Graeme West and Jennifer Harris) Dean Di, receive this bread and wine, be among us to preside at the Eucharist which we celebrate together.

Bread and wine are placed on the altar

People: Amen

Bishop Andrew: Jesus said: I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst.

Will you faithfully celebrate the Eucharist with God's family in this Cathedral?

Dean Di: Yes, I will. I ask the people of God; will you share with me in this family meal of the Church?

People: By God's grace we will join with you in the worship of God, Creator, Redeemer and Giver of life.

Cathedral Representatives: (Alison Thomson and Dale Meredith) Dean Di, receive the Book of Vestry minutes and these symbols of our ministry; be among us as leader. We offer you our friendship and support as we join together in this work to which God has called us. Be among us as one who enables the whole mission of the Church.

People: Amen

Bishop Andrew: The Apostle Peter said: Tend the flock of God that is in your charge, not under compulsion, but willingly, not as domineering over those in your charge, but being an example to the flock.

The Bishop continues

Will you encourage others to share in the stewardship of money and talents and the faithful management of Cathedral affairs?

Will you oversee and encourage the ministries within the parish to grow and be strengthened? Will you exercise pastoral care of the family of God across the Cathedral?

Dean Di: With God's help I will.

I ask you, as fellow members of the Body of Christ, will you give your time, talents, and money in support of this Cathedral and love and forgive each other as Christ loves and forgives?

People: By God's grace we will

Anthem: How lovely are thy dwellings Brahms

Presentation of Cathedral Gifts

Gifts of welcome are brought to the Dean.

Messages of Welcome

Representatives of the wider Church and community bring messages of welcome to the Dean.

Her Worship Kirsten Wise, Mayor of Napier

Her Worship Sandra Hazelhurst, Mayor of Hastings

Councillor Martin Williams, Hawkes Bay Regional Council

Lt Commander Paul Eady Royal New Zealand Navy

Inner City Churches covenant: Fr Barry Scannell

Archdeacon David van Oeveren

Lucy Laitinen CEO Anglican Care, Waiapu

Anyone who would like to welcome Di as Dean of Waiapu Cathedral is invited to come to the lectern at this time.

Dean Di responds to the greetings.

The Blessing: Bishop Andrew Hedge

Recessional: The day thou gavest ...

1. The day thou gavest, Lord, is ended,
The darkness falls at thy behest;
To thee our morning hymns ascended,
Thy praise shall sanctify our rest.

2. We thank thee that thy Church, unsleeping,
While earth rolls onward into light,
Through all the world her watch is keeping,
And rests not now by day or night.

3. As o'er each continent and island
The dawn leads on another day,
The voice of prayer is never silent,
Nor dies the strain of praise away.

4. The sun that bids us rest is waking
Our brethren 'neath the western sky,
And hour by hour fresh lips are making
Thy wondrous doings heard on high.

5. So be it, Lord; thy throne shall never,
Like earth's proud empires, pass away;
Thy Kingdom stands, and grows for ever,
Till all thy creatures own thy sway

Words: John Ellerton
Tune: ST CLEMENT

Voluntary: RNZAF Band

The procession out is led by the choir, Diocesan clergy then visiting clergy, then Cathedral clergy, the Dean and Bishops.
