Processional: All people that on earth do dwell...

1. All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
Serve him with joy, his praises tell,
come now before him and rejoice!

2. Know that the Lord is God indeed;
he formed us all without our aid.
We are the flock he comes to feed,
the sheep who by his hand were made.

3. O enter then his gates with joy, within his courts his praise proclaim.
Let thankful songs your tongues employ.
O bless and magnify his name.

4. Trust that the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is forever sure.
His faithfulness at all times stood and shall from age to age endure.

Adapted by Thomas H. Troeger
Tune: OLD HUNDRETH

Welcome:

What does the Lord require of you but to do justice,
and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?

Micah 6.8

The presider continues:

We meet in the presence of God.
We commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith
for reconciliation between the nations, that all people may, together, live in freedom, justice and peace.

We pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror.

We remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives, in world wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away.

Confession:

Let us confess to God the sins and shortcomings of the world; its pride, its selfishness, its greed; its evil divisions and hatreds.

Let us confess our share in what is wrong, and our failure to seek and establish that peace which God wills for his children.

After a short silence, we pray

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned
in thought, word and deed.
We have not loved you with our whole heart.
We have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
In your mercy forgive what we have been,
help us to amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be;
that we may do justly, love mercy,
and walk humbly with you, our God.
Amen.

Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent,
have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Collect for Remembrance Sunday

Almighty and eternal God,
from whose love in Christ we cannot be parted,
either by death or life:
hear our prayers and thanksgivings
for all whom we remember this day;
fulfil in them the purpose of your love;
and bring us all, with them, to your eternal joy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

A reading from the First Testament: Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Everything Has Its Time

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
a time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

Pie Jesu Choir

The New Testament reading: Romans 8:31-35,37

If God is for us, who is against us? He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else? Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gradual: The Lord's my shepherd...

1. The Lord's my shepherd; I'll not want.

He makes me down to lie
in pastures green; he leadeth me
the quiet waters by.

2. My soul he doth restore again and me to walk doth make within the paths of righteousness,
e'en for his own name's sake;

3. Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale, yet will I fear no ill;
for thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still;

4. My table thou hast furnished in presence of my foes;
my head thou dost with oil anoint,

and my cup overflows.

5. Goodness and mercy all my life shall surely follow me,
and in God's house forevermore
my dwelling place shall be.

Words: 23rd Psalm
Tune: CRIMOND

The Gospel: John 15:9-17

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

Address : Dean Di Woods

Intercessions Christine Kerr

In peace let us pray to the Lord.
We pray for the leaders of the nations,
that you will guide them in the ways of freedom,

justice and truth.
Lord, in your mercy
hear our prayer.

We pray for those who bear arms on behalf of the nation,
that they may have discipline and discernment,
courage and compassion.
Lord, in your mercy
hear our prayer.

We pray for our enemies, and those who wish us harm,
that you will turn the hearts of all to kindness and friendship.
Lord, in your mercy
hear our prayer.

We pray for the wounded and the captive,
the grieving and the homeless,
that in all their trials they may know your love and support.
Lord, in your mercy
hear our prayer.

Most holy God,
hear our prayers for all who strive for peace and all who fight for justice. Help us, who today remember the cost of war, to work for a better tomorrow; and, as we commend to you lives lost in terror and conflict, bring us all, in the end, to the peace of your presence;
through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Let us pledge ourselves anew to the service of God
and our fellow men and women:
that we may help, encourage and comfort others,
and support those working for the relief of the needy
and for the peace and welfare of the nations.

Lord God,
we pledge ourselves to serve you and all humankind,
in the cause of peace, for the relief of want and suffering,
and for the praise of your name.

Guide us by your Spirit;
give us wisdom; give us courage; give us hope;
and keep us faithful now and always.

Amen.

The Peace

Jesus said, 'Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.
I do not give to you as the world gives', and so:

The peace of Christ be always with you.
And also with you.

We exchange a sign of peace.

Offertory: Honour the dead...

1. Honour the dead, our country's fighting brave, honour our children left in foreign grave,
where poppies blow and sorrow seeds her flowers,
honour the crosses marked forever ours.

2. Weep for the places ravaged with our blood, weep for the young bones buried in the mud,
weep for the powers of violence and greed,
weep for the deals done in the name of need

3. Honour the Brave who's conscience was the call, answered no bugle, went against the wall,
suffered and prisons of contempt and shame,
branded as cowards, in our country's name

4. Weep for the waste of all that might of been, weep for the cost that war has made obscene,
weep for the homes that ache with human pain,
weep that we ever sanction war again

5. Honour the dream for which our nation bled, held now in trust to justify the dead,
honour their vision on this solemn day:
peace known in freedom, peace the only way.

Words: Shirley Erena Murray
Tune: ANZAC. Colin Gibson

The Offertory

To you, Lord, belongs the greatness,
and the power, and the glory,
and the victory and the majesty.
All that is in the heavens and the earth is yours,
and of your own we give you.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord is here.
God's Spirit is with us.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to offer thanks and praise.

It is right indeed, everliving God,
to give you thanks and praise through Christ your only Son.
You are the source of all life and goodness;
through your eternal Word
you have created all things from the beginning.

When we sinned and turned away
you called us back to yourself and gave your Son to share our human nature.
He made the one perfect sacrifice for the sin of the world.

Therefore we proclaim your great and glorious name, singing:

Sanctus Choir

On the night before he died, he took bread;
when he had given you thanks,
he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body
which is given for you;
do this to remember me.

After supper he took the cup;
when he had given you thanks,
he gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you,
for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins;
do this as often as you drink it,
to remember me.

Therefore loving God,
recalling your great goodness to us in Christ,
we celebrate our redemption with this bread of life
and this cup of salvation.
Send your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread and wine which we receive may be to us the body and blood of Christ,
and that we, filled with the Spirit's grace and power,
may be renewed for the service of your kingdom.

Christ's body was broken for us on the cross.

Christ is the bread of life.

His blood was shed for our forgiveness.

Christ is risen from the dead.

Come God's people,

come to receive Christ's heavenly food.

Agnus Dei Choir

During Communion: Libera Me Choir

After communion

As Christ teaches us we pray

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours

now and for ever. Amen.

Act of Remembrance

Let us remember before God,

and commend to his safe keeping,

those who have died for their country in war;

those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure;

and all who have lived and died in the service of the peoples of the world.

Ode: Lt Cdr Paul Eady

They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old;
age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun
and in the morning,
we will remember them.
We will remember them.

Silence is kept.

Almighty God,
stretch forth your mighty arm
to strengthen and protect the armed forces:
grant that meeting danger with courage
and all occasions with discipline and loyalty,
they may truly serve the cause of justice and peace;
to the honour of your holy name,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Recessional: O God our help in ages past...

1. O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast,
and our eternal home;

2. Under the shadow of thy throne your saints have dwelt secure;
sufficient is thine arm alone,
and our defence is sure.

3. Before the hills in order stood,
or earth received her frame,
from everlasting thou art God,
to endless years the same.

4. A thousand ages in thy sight
are like an evening gone,
short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

5. Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
soon bears us all away;
we fly forgotten, as a dream
dies at the opening day.

6. O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
be thou our guard while troubles last,
and our eternal home.

*Words: I Watts
Tune: ST ANNE*

Dismissal:

Go now to love and serve the Lord, go in peace.

Amen. We go in the name of the Lord

NOTICES

TODAY, Sunday 13th – Octavius Choir will perform a concert here in the Cathedral at 2pm. Only $20 ($15 concession, children free).

19th November: the knitting group will meet a week earlier than usual this month - see you at 10am on the 19th, in the Cathedral.

22nd November – Dean Di returns from a week's leave in the UK.

27th November: Advent Carol Service at 8pm: it's always stunning!

Nourish for Nil (formerly Foodbank) – current needs are for instant coffee, and instant meals such as risotto, soups, etc..

Donations and offerings can now be made by PayWave or Eftpos using the machine at the back of the Cathedral. We love to help!

SITUATIONS VACANT – enquiries to office.

Bellringers – Keith would love to show you the ropes (haha). Why not have a go? It's good to learn a new skill every year, they say...

Cathedral Guides –Napier has burst into life since Labour day. We have visitors at the Cathedral every day and it would be so lovely to have someone to host and greet them all. We are prioritising cruise ship visits, but anytime you have an hour to spare... 😊

Sound desk operators – we need one or two more on our team please. Full training and a buddy system are offered!

Parish administrator – with great sadness we advise that Steffi will finish in early December, for personal reasons. Please direct people to SEEK if you know someone who may be interested and suitable for this part time position.
