Collect for Christ the King

Christ who reigns, you care for the least amongst us, give us courage to enact your Gospel in all the world,
that all the people may see your glory.

For you are alive and reign with the Father,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God now and forever. Amen.

A reading from the First Testament: Jeremiah 23:1-6

Restoration after Exile

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord.

The Righteous Branch of David

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'

1. Blessèd are you O Lord our God:
you have come to your people and set them free.
2. You have raised up for us a mighty Saviour:
born of the house of your servant David.
3. Through your holy prophets you promised of old:
that you would save us from our enemies,
from the hands of all who hate us.
4. You promised to show mercy to our forbears:
and to remember your holy covenant.
5. This was the oath you swore to our father Abraham:
to set us free from the hands of our enemies,
6. free to worship you without fear:
holy and righteous in your sight
all the days of our life.
7. And you, child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High:
for you will go before the Lord to prepare the way,
8. to give God's people knowledge of salvation:
through the forgiveness of their sins.
9. In the tender compassion of our God:
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,
10. to shine on those who dwell in darkness
and the shadow of death:
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Luke 1:68-79 (adapted)

The New Testament reading: Colossians 1:11-20

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

The Supremacy of Christ

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

The Gospel: Luke 23: 33-43

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. [Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.'] And they cast lots to divide his clothing. And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, 'He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!' The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, 'If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!' There was also an inscription over him, 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, 'Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!' But the other rebuked him, saying, 'Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.' Then he said, 'Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.' He replied, 'Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.'

NOTICES

22nd November – Dean Di returns from a week's leave in the UK.

27th November at 8pm: From Darkness to Light

The choir leads us through beautiful advent carols and the service that looks to the light that Jesus Christ brings into the world. Who can you invite to join you at our Service: it is always stunning!

Nourish for Nil (formerly the Foodbank) – are almost out of spreads (jams, peanut butter etc.) and biscuits. Also, a huge thanks to those of you sending in the Christmas treats – they are wonderful! All food donations will be well received. 😊 Donations and offerings can now be made by PayWave or Eftpos using the machine at the back of the Cathedral. We love to help!

SITUATIONS VACANT – enquiries to office.

Cathedral Guides –Napier has burst into life since Labour Weekend. We have people visiting the Cathedral every day and it would be so lovely to have someone to host and greet them all. We are prioritising cruise ship visits, but anytime you have an hour to spare... 😊

Sound desk operators – we need one or two more on our team please. Full training will be given, and you can be buddied to start with. Have a chat with any of our sound operators or leave a message for Steffi in the office.

Parish administrator – with great sadness we advise that Steffi will finish in early December, for personal reasons. Please direct people to SEEK if you know someone who may be interested and suitable for this part time position.
