Sentence for today

He aha tā Ihowā e rapu nei ki a koe, heoi anō ko te whakawā tika, ko te pai ki te tohu tangata, ko te whakaiti me te haere tahi i toū Atua?
Mika 6: 8

What does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God? Micah 6: 8

The Collect for today, Parihaka Peaceful Resistance

God of peace and justice,
you called Te Whiti o Rongomai
to lead his people
to struggle for justice
by peaceful means;
may we defend the rights of the powerless and build our communities
on the basis of mutual care and love; through Jesus Christ the prince of peace. Amen

A reading from the First Testament: Isaiah 52:1-6

Let Zion Rejoice

Awake, awake,
put on your strength, O Zion!
Put on your beautiful garments,
O Jerusalem, the holy city;
for the uncircumcised and the unclean
shall enter you no more.
Shake yourself from the dust, rise up,
O captive Jerusalem;
loose the bonds from your neck,
O captive daughter Zion!

For thus says the Lord: You were sold for nothing, and you shall be redeemed without money. For thus says the Lord God: Long ago, my people went down into Egypt to reside there as aliens; the Assyrian, too, has oppressed them without cause. Now therefore, what am I doing here, says the Lord, seeing that my people are taken away without cause? Their rulers howl, says the Lord, and continually, all day long, my name is despised. Therefore my people shall know my name; therefore on that day they shall know that it is I who speak; here am I.

Psalm 85

1 Lord you were once gracious ' to your ' land:
you re'stored the ' fortunes · of ' Jacob.

2 You forgave the of'fence · of your ' people:
and ' covered ' all their ' sin.

3 You put away ' all · your dis'pleasure:
and ' turned · from your ' bitter ' wrath.

4 Restore us again O ' God our ' saviour:
and ' let your ' anger ' cease from us.

5 Will you be Will you be displeased at ' us for ' ever:
will you prolong your wrath
from one gener'ation ' to an'other?

6 Will you not re'vive us · a'gain:
so that your ' people ' may re'joice in you?

7† Show us your ' mercy · O ' Lord:
and ' give us · your ' saving ' help.

8 Let me hear what you will ' say O ' Lord:
for you will speak peace to your people,
to your servants whose ' hearts are ' turned to ' you.

9 For deliverance is at hand for ' those who ' fear you:
so that your ' glory · may ' dwell · in our ' land.

10 Mercy and faithfulness have ' met to'gether:
justice and ' peace · have em'braced each ' other.

11 Faithfulness will spring up ' from the ' ground:
and righteousness will ' look ' down from ' heaven.

12 You Lord will ' give pros'perity:
and our ' land shall ' yield its ' harvest.

13 Justice shall ' go be'fore you:
and the path for your ' feet ' shall be ' peace.

The New Testament reading: Galatians 5:13-23

For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

The Works of the Flesh

Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

The Fruit of the Spirit

By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things.

The Gospel: Luke 1:68-79

‘Blessed be the Lord God of Israel,
for he has looked favourably on his people and redeemed them.
He has raised up a mighty saviour for us
in the house of his servant David,
as he spoke through the mouth of his holy prophets from of old,
that we would be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us.
Thus he has shown the mercy promised to our ancestors,
and has remembered his holy covenant,
the oath that he swore to our ancestor Abraham,
to grant us that we, being rescued from the hands of our enemies,
might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness
before him all our days.
And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High;
for you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways,
to give knowledge of salvation to his people
by the forgiveness of their sins.
By the tender mercy of our God,
the dawn from on high will break upon us,
to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death,
to guide our feet into the way of peace.’
