Processional Hymn: Common Praise 232 –

For all the saints who from their labours rest

Collect:

Almighty God,
your saints are one with you
in the mystical body of Christ;
give us grace to follow them
in all virtue and holiness
until we come to those inexpressible joys which you have prepared for those who truly love you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading: Daniel 7:1-3, 15-18

Psalm 149 (ANZPB-HKMoA) – at 10 am the psalm is sung by the choir

1. Praise the Lord.

O sing to the Lord a new song:
give praise in the assembly of the faithful.

2. Let the people of God rejoice in their maker:
and let the servants of the Most High exult in their king.

3. Let them praise God's name in the dance:
let them sing God's praise with timbrel and harp.

4. For you O Lord take delight in your people:
and crown your humble folk with victory.
5. Let the faithful exult in their triumph:
let them shout for joy as they feast.
6. Let the praises of God be on their lips:
and a two-edged sword in their hand.
Whakamoemititia a Ihowā. / O praise the Lord.

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:11–23

A thought from today's sermon

It's inspiring to read about people like Mother Teresa of Calcutta, but we're not called to be her. We're called to be ourselves – transformed by grace, shining with Christ's light in our own way.

The saints before us encourage us, not to copy them, but to become the person God created us to be.
