First Reading: Jeremiah 23:1–6

Psalm 46 (ANZPB-HKMoA) – at 10 am the psalm is sung by the choir

1. God is our refuge and strength:
a very present help in trouble.
2. So we will not be afraid though the earth should quake:
and mountains fall into the depths of the sea,
3. though the waters of the sea rage and foam:
and the mountains tremble at the tumult.
4. There is a river, its streams make glad the city of God:
which the Most High has made a holy dwelling.

5. God is within her, she cannot be shaken:
God will help her at the break of day.
6. Nations are in tumult, kingdoms are shaken:
but God has spoken, and the earth melts away.
7. The Lord of hosts is with us:
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
8. Come and see what the Lord has done:
the devastation brought upon the earth.
9. The Lord makes wars to cease in all the world:
the Lord breaks the bow and snaps the spear,
and burns the shields in the fire.
10. 'Be still then, and know that I am God:
high over the nations, high above the earth.'
11. The Lord of hosts is with us:
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

- We invite you to stay for morning tea after the service.

A thought from today's sermon

Asking “what kind of a king is Jesus, and what kind of a kingdom does he have?” is one way of looking at today. Another way is to ask, “what kind of church should we be, and how does each of us exercise the power that we have?”

Cruise Ship Hosting Volunteers

The cruise season started on Friday 21 November with the arrival of the Noordam- with a relatively modest contingent of 1924 passengers.

We enjoy welcoming cruise passengers and crew into the cathedral over summer. If you'd like to be part of our hosting ministry, please fill in the rosters on the board at the back of the cathedral. Contact Charlene in the office if you would like a copy for your diary.
