

8.00am: Said Eucharist
At 10.00am: 95th Napier Earthquake Memorial Service

Nau mai, haere mai.
Our liturgy begins on page 404 of
A New Zealand Prayer Book / He Karakia Mihinare o Aotearoa

Collect:

Teach us, Jesus,
how to live and worship
without being worldly or greedy.
Drive from our lives what spoils them
and make us temples of the Spirit;
for the glory of your holy name. Amen.

First Reading: Micah 6:1–8

Psalm 15 (ANZPB-HKMoA)

1. Lord, who may be a guest in your house:
or who may dwell on your holy mountain?
2. One who leads a blameless life:
who does what is right,
and speaks truthfully from the heart,
3. whose tongue is free from malice,
who never wrongs a friend:
and utters no reproach against a neighbour,
4. who does not honour the unworthy:
but makes much of those who fear the Lord.

5. Such a one stands by a promise given:
 though it be at personal disadvantage,
6. and will not take interest on a loan:
 nor accept a bribe to testify against the innocent.
7. Whoever does all this:
 shall never be overthrown.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:18–31

Gospel: Matthew 5:1–12

A THOUGHT FROM TODAY'S SERMON

What does a life shaped by God actually look like? It's being part of a community in which the life of the Beatitudes makes sense. And that's a life of discipleship aligned with what God has already blessed: purity of heart, compassion, humility, peace-making. A life of doing justice, loving kindness, and walking humbly with God. It's a life which has the cross at its centre. What might living like that alongside each other feel like? How might this show itself in the week ahead? Who needs to see us practising justice, kindness, and humility more often?
